

Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The bias type is Correlation, the relevant features are marital status and decisions made during patient care, the bias level is Level 1: No bias, and the additional explanation is The N-Sigma values indicate that the mean of the decisions made during patient care feature for each category of the marital status feature is within 1 standard deviation of the overall mean, indicating no significant bias.