

Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The bias type is Distribution.

The relevant feature is race.

The bias level is Level 5.

The racial distribution in the Adult dataset is biased towards the White group, with a proportion of 0.854274, while the other groups have significantly lower proportions. This indicates extreme bias, which may impact the fairness and accuracy of models trained on this dataset.