

Bias Detection Report

Bias Detection Report

Bias Type: Correlation

Relevant Features: Number of people being liable to provide maintenance for (Family Size), Credit risk (Good/Bad)

Bias Level: Level 1

The analysis using Cohen's d indicates no significant bias between family size and credit risk outcomes. The standardized difference method was not interpretable due to a calculation issue. The bar chart provides a visual representation of the distribution of credit risk outcomes across different family sizes.

