

Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction. The correlation between the address feature and the G3 feature indicates a moderate bias, with a maximum absolute N value of 0.19753003030754127. This suggests that students from different addresses may have slightly different final grades.