

Bias Detection Report

Bias Detection Report for Reasons of School Choice

The analysis of the 'reason' column in the 'Student Performance' dataset indicates a minimal bias in the distribution of reasons for school choice.

The Shannon Balance metric, Max-Min Ratio, and Gini Index suggest a relatively balanced distribution with some minor imbalance.

The dataset is suitable for use with minimal attention needed in specific scenarios.

