

Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The bias detection task is to check if there is any hidden influence of marital status in the COMPAS dataset.

The Chi-Square statistic and p-value indicate a significant correlation between MaritalStatus and other features, suggesting a high level of bias in the dataset.