

Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The bias type is Distribution, the relevant feature is patient_lang, and the bias level is 4.

The Shannon balance calculated for the language feature is 0.5139382417277789, which is relatively low. This suggests that the distribution of the language feature is skewed, with some categories dominating the others.