

Bias Detection Report

The analysis of the dataset 'MIMIC-IV.csv' focused on the correlation between 'patient_age' and 'hospital_expire_flag'. The Pearson correlation coefficient was found to be 0.078, indicating a very weak correlation. This suggests that age does not significantly affect decision-making and resource allocation during treatment, resulting in a bias level of Level 1, which represents no significant bias.