

Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The correlation between education and income is approximately 0.34, indicating a moderate positive correlation. The bias level is Level 2, suggesting a moderate bias between education and income.