

Bias Detection Report

Bias Detection Report

The analysis of the dataset 'MIMIC-IV.csv' focused on detecting potential bias between marital status and admission type.

The Cramér's V value of 0.129 indicates a low level of correlation, categorized as Level 2 bias.

This suggests a subtle association between marital status and admission type, but not a strong one.

The overall bias level is determined to be Level 2, indicating low bias.