Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The Cramér's V value indicates a weak to moderate association between the features. This suggests that the 'Personal status and sex' feature has some impact on the 'Credit risk (Good/Bad)' feature, but the relationship is not very strong.