Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The N-Sigma method was used to detect correlation bias between the categorical feature 'ForeignWorker' and the numerical feature 'Credit risk (Good/Bad)'.

The results show that there is no significant bias between the two features.