Bias Detection Report

Bias Detection Report

Bias Type: Correlation

Relevant Features: Installment rate in percentage of disposable income, Personal status and sex

Bias Level: Minimal Bias

Explanation: The standardized difference method provided insights into the correlation between the categorical feature with multiple categories and the numerical feature. The minimal bias level indicates that the dataset can be used with confidence, though slight variations should be considered in specific analyses.