Bias Detection Report

The dataset analyzed is the Adult dataset. The features examined are occupation and income. The type of bias detected is correlation bias. The tools used are the Hilbert-Schmidt Independence Criterion (HSIC) method. The values obtained are HSIC = 0.01. The extent of the bias is moderate. The visualization is a heatmap.

Image not found: generated_files/heatmap.png