Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The N-Sigma values indicate a slight bias in favor of the foreign worker group, with a value of 0.418533 for the yes category and -0.016081 for the no category. This suggests that the credit risk model may be slightly more likely to predict good credit risk for foreign workers.