Bias Detection Report

This is a report introduction.

The bias type is Distribution.

The relevant feature is patient_marital.

The bias level is Level 4: High bias.

The bias extent and related findings based on the detection results show that the patient_marital attribute has a high bias level, indicating a significant imbalance in the distribution of marital statuses.