Bias Detection Report

The bias level is: Level 3

The relevant feature is: native-country

The bias type is: Correlation

Additional explanation: The analysis suggests that the native country of an individual has a moderate impact on their income, with some countries having a higher proportion of individuals with higher incomes. This bias could be due to various factors such as differences in education, job opportunities, and cultural background.